LETTER FROM A GRANGER.

FRIENDS CREEK, Oct. 15.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—The battle draws on a pace. I fancy I hear the Cannon's roar and the shriek of the wounded and dying. I tremble with fear that we will be defeated, as we have no artillery while the enemy has

Cannon of the largest calibre.

Gen. Pickrell will open the fight with a small battalion of scared and war-worn veterans who have seen a hundred fight. They are a band of deserters from the old democratic army.

They will be sent forward as the forlorn hope. The General thinks it won't be much loss if they are killed,

as they are getting old. But I have not much faith in deserters.

One great drawback to the success

in our war on railroads is the high price of corn. If corn was only twenty cents per bushel we could say the railroads were to blame. The only hope we have is to advocate a large increase of greenbacks, making money so plenty

that people can get it without work.

Shawpees will be defeated. He won't get 50 democratic votes in the county. We are bound to elect all democrats. A GRANGER

THE WAY TO WIN.

An hour's quiet talk with a luke warm neighbor will do more to arouse him to an earnest support of the Republican party than a dozen stump speeches. Mass meetings impart enthusiasm to organized bodies and keep them active in the good work, but a personal canvass by the right kind of men makes converts and thus adds to the party strength. Every town should have its Republican organizations. Men of character, those who possess the entire confidence of the community, should be the leaders and workers in these organizations. Meetings should be held at least once a week from now until the election. A thorough canvass should be had of the voters in the district. The politics of every man should be known. This can be done by subdivisions small enough to enable those appointed to make a complete personal canvass. The strength of the party should be known.

Every vote should be brought out at the polls. Our leaders should work from now until the close of the ballot box as if the success of the party depended on just one vote. This is the way to win great victories. To remain inactive, presuming on the popularity of the ticket or the former strength of the party is to invite defeat. We cannot give too large a majority; we may through inactivity lack one vote of a triumph. Organization, hard work, devotion to the good cause for which we labor, will crown our efforts with success. The House of Representatives must be kept in loyal hands.

To lose control of it is to again expose

the life of the nation to the deadly assaults of its enemies. It is the key to the political position and must be held by the friends of freedom and humanity.—Exchange

We would be much obliged if our subscribers would inform our carrier at what particular place they desire their papers to be left.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

Indicative today.

A cloudless sky this morning.

Crowds of farmers on the street and in the stores.

County Court holds over into next week.

Go to Niedermeyer's for superb cracker.

Decatur millers are now shipping large quantities of flour in barrels eastward.

McCulloch's "Diamond Brand" Oysters, for sale at Miller's.

Plenty of hickory nuts are now in the city—for sale at the grocery stores at $2.00 per bushel.

Diphtheria, which has been very prevalent among the children at Tolono, is now abating. The practice with the physicians has, consequently, been materially lessened.

Excellent butter, fresh and sweet, on sale by Jack & Son.

The signs of rain apparent yesterday have passed away, greatly to the disappointment of housewives who are out of soft water.

Jesse Lockhart is in town, minus his plug hat and black broad cloth. We read his plain attire as a bid for the nigger vote.

"Mollie hang the kettle on, we'll all take tea" at Kitchen's red trout on Main street.

The new crop of corn so far has come in slowly, but doubtless there will be such a superabundance in the market that the price will materially change.

Fresh Oysters for Sunday use—Malboro's "Diamond Brand", best in the market, for sale at MILLER'S.

Several of the American Tunnets who assemble nightly over Locke's and store, are becoming really first-class crummers. Three or four of the members of this organization have no peers in the city.

McCreary is now fully established in his new quarters on South Main street, where he is prepared to serve his customers and the rest of mankind with all kinds of fruit and vegetables, also, poultry, eggs and nice sweet butter.

A flagman at the crossing near the Pains depot is quite necessary. Since the present flagman was stationed at that place he has kept off teams where teams were approaching, and has thus prevented many runaways or accidents.

Acquaintances, chatters and snailers, you will find what you are looking for at Andy Kepler's.

About all the old grain has been distributed to the middlemen who are now preparing to handle large quantities of new grain.

Winter Opening of Fashionable Millinery, at Mrs. L. A. Dunning's, 13 Water street, Wednesday, Oct. 28th, 1874.

The new walk in front of Paine's mill and just north of it on Main street, is a fine improvement. It should have a hand railing on each side at the point where it crosses the culvert, and then the job would be all O. K.

Squire Fuller is head of the auction men to day. He can hold a larger crowd, all more goods, and make more noise than all the rest combined.

Our manufacturers will now soon begin to run on short time until the days get longer again during the winter months. Mechanics will make less money and need more than at any other time in the year.

There are still many small mud-holes and gulches in our streets left for Supervisor Dempsey to fill up. That officer is doing considerable at this at present.

Stop at the "Sherman House," when in Chicago. Its guests always go away pleased, for they are always well treated, well fed, and provided with every comfort while under its roof.

Persons having occasion to buy groceries will find a full and select stock at the store of W. H. Reame, on North Water street, near the railroad crossing. Goods are at all first class, and prices as low as at any establishment in the city.

The work on Zerk Boughton's new residence, in Warrsburg, is now progressing rapidly. The brick work is all done and a considerable portion of the roof has been put on—and the whole house is ready for occupancy in about a month.

J. Ulrich & Co. have a full line of Toys and Rio coffee. 16-2d

A gentleman from a part of the country where there is an occasional decent house to rent, was greatly amused yesterday when looking at a home with view of having it, to be told by the proprietor that as he wished to keep the house no one would be kept by the occupant of the premises. The house hunter, who had already discovered that the house was hardly fit for a decent rent, said to the owner that he would like to see the house.

A YOUNG HORSE THIEF.

A Boy of 10 years Steals a Horse and Makes Off with it.

This morning at about 10 o'clock Patsy Ryan, a boy ten years of age unbaptized, stole a horse from the front of Mr. J. G. Glantz's horse from the front of his establishment on North Main street, and rode rapidly away. He was noticed in the act by one of the stone cutters at Bartlett's marble shop, but nothing was thought of it, the supposition in the man's mind being that the boy was sent on an errand with the horse.

About a half hour later Mr. Glantz was ready to go home, and came out to mount his horse, when he found that she was missing. In a hurried and excited manner he inquired of the stone men if they had seen his horse break loose. The cutters then told him a small boy had taken it. Mr. G., in company with a friend, found, by questioning, that the boy had gone in the direction of the rolling mill. They drove fast and finally got a glimpse of Patsy, who was displaying the running qualities of his steed with his head set towards the rising sun. Glantz and his friend at last overtook the little thief, brought him up town, and gave him into Marshal Haworth's charge. The officer took his prisoner up before Squire Hughes, but noting could be done, as the thief was much too young for the law to reach him.

Patsy said that a man told him he might have the horse to ride, and said he didn't mean to steal it. He was impressed with the enormity of the penalty every horse-thief must pay, and was allowed to go free. "It is likely he won't want to get away with another horse soon."

Religious Services.—Preaching at the First M. E. Church to-morrow at 10 and 7 p. m., by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Reed. Subject in the evening, "Our Modern Plinths." Seats free, and a cordial welcome to all.

Religious Notice.—Rev Robert Mackenzie having returned from the Synod, will preach in his church to-morrow morning and evening, at the usual hours of service.

Elder N. S. Haynes returned from Kansas yesterday, and will preach at the Christian Church to-morrow morning and evening. The subject of his evening discourse will be, "What will be the difference in the day of judgment between the Christian and the man who has never made a profession of Christianity, yet has lived as well in the eyes of the world."

Winter Opening.—Of Fashionable Millinery, Wednesday, Oct. 28th, 1874, at No. 13 North Water street.

17-1d Mrs. L. A. DUNNING.

Christie & Barnes, Gen'l Ins. Agents, represent the old and tried "Looming Fire Insurance Co." Solid assets of over $5,000,000. No advance in rates on account of losses incurred in other cities.

Honest Jurymen.—Several of the honest fellows of the soil have been unmercifully grasped by the Constables and brought to Decatur to serve on the jury at the trial of the county court. We are glad to see that the Decatur leaders, who make themselves professional jurymen, are "left" at this term. Many of the farmer jurymen are "squealing" loudly because they are unable to hush their own and bring it to market while the high prices last.

Nubias, Hoods and Scarfs, at S. Einstein's. 16-1d

Fire at Champaign.—We learn from Alderman Ehrman, who returned from Chicago this morning by way of Tolono, that when the train on the Illinois Central road passed through Champaign, about 1 o'clock this morning, a fire was raging in a large two-story frame building, just east of the Duane house, which seemed to be occupied as a dwelling in the second story. When the cars left there were some women in the upper rooms, who were cut off from the stairway by the fire, and the crowd was trying to persuade them to jump upon some bedding which had been laid upon the sidewalk to receive them. When the train arrived at Tolono the light of the fire could be plainly seen.

Oysters, Oysters!—Fresh and nice, at Imboden's.

Oyster Supper and Promenade Concert.—The Ladies of the Episcopal Church will give an oyster supper and promenade concert on Friday evening, Oct. 25th, at the large store in Powers' block, next to the old post-office, formerly occupied by James Porter. Oysters will be served in any style; ice cream and cake. Music furnished for the occasion. Admission to hall, 10 cts.

Ladies' White Underwear, at greatly reduced prices, at Goldmure's.

Mammoth Bean Stalk.—Mr. James B. Miller has brought to our office a castor bean stalk which measures twelve feet nine inches in length. It was planted by Mr. M. last spring, and has grown with wonderful rapidity. For size this bean may be instalk we have ever seen.

The P. A. & D. R. R. Bridges.—We have been shown several views of bridges along the line of the Peoria, Atlanta & Decatur Railway, and from these views one must judge that the bridges are very strong. One in particular—that leading over the MacKinnon river—is longer than the St. Louis bridge near this city, and has cost fully as much.

S. Einstein is receiving new goods daily. 16-1d

Wanted, by a gentleman and his wife, one or two large unfurnished rooms, in a quiet and pleasant locality. Inquire at this office. 17-1d

Deaf, Dumb and Blind.

Some of our readers have probably heard of the highly educated blind mute, Miss Laura Bridgman, of Hanover, New Hampshire, who was prominently before the public when obtaining her education at Hartford, Conn., about thirty years ago. It was our pleasure to know her personally, and to-day her brother, Mr. A. D. Bridgman, who is now stopping in our city, gave us a letter written by her to himself in 1871. As a specimen of chirography it is a curiosity. The letters are somewhat in the shape of printed capitals, and are very regularly cut. The lines are at uniform distances from each other, and are as straight across the page as a line can be drawn. Mr. B. has kindly donated the letter to us, and it may be seen by calling at this office.

Winter Opening of Fashionable Millinery, Wednesday, Oct. 28th, 1874. No. 13 Water street.

Donation Visit.—The ladies of Long Creek M. E. Congregation called at the parsonage in this city on Thursday evening, the 15th inst., and enjoyed an exceedingly pleasant evening in social chat, and on retiring left their pastor and his family many valuable and useful presents, for which said ladies have the sincere thanks of

A New Business.—Mr. A. D. Bridgman opened a shop in Fenton's new building on North Water street, for the repair of sewing machines of all kinds. He also keeps a full line of all attachments, and needles for every variety of machine, together with a very superior article of machine oil. Mr. B. is thoroughly versed in the business he advertises, and all who have dealings with him can rely upon getting good work at a reasonable price. An establishment of this kind is much needed in the city, and we have no doubt Mr. Bridgman will find all the work he can turn his hands to.

D. D. Mallory & Co's Diamond Brand fresh Oysters, without any doubt, are the best oysters in the market. A full supply always on hand and for sale at MILLER'S.

A Large Stock of Germantown Yarns, just opened at Einstein's. 16-1d

Advancing.—The price of potatoes is constantly advancing. Dealers in Ohio, Indiana and Iowa are asking 20 cents more per bushel than they did ten days ago. The cause of this is that the supply is not equal to the demand. There is a scarcity of potatoes in the market.

For Kansas.—A couple of families passed through the city this morning bound for Kansas. They weren't afraid of the "hoppers," and were going to stay in Kansas if they once got there. They reckoned they wouldn't starve to death this winter, and hoped to raise good crops next season.

Hats, Caps, Gloves and ready-made Clothing—an immense stock, at 13-1d RACE'S.

Wonderful Pacing Horse.—A man in this city owns a small pacing horse which he avers has no competitor in the whole of the Sucker State. He will not let what time his horse can make, nor will he make an exhibition of her speed at the county fairs or races for the little $30 premiums offered. However, he offers to bet $1,000 that she can beat any pacing horse in Illinois.

Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing Goods, just received at S. Einstein's. 16-1d

Capt. W. J. Brown has long been known to our people as one of the most skillful diggers in the country, and having had the fine large store, second door from Prairie street, on Merchant, thoroughly refitted under his personal supervision and with special reference to his trade, he has stocked it with one of the finest lots of drugs, medicines, perfumery, toilet goods, etc., ever seen in this part of the State. Medicines are compounded and put up by a thoroughly experienced druggist, and everything in connection with his business is done in the best manner. He keeps also a full line of the best cigars to be found in the market.

Books! Books! and Stationery of every variety, at the book emporium of I. J. Davis & Co.

Cash Paid for Cast-off Clothing, at No. 33 East Main street, 3rd door east of Water street. Also, cutting, repairing and scouring. 17-1d

It is a Fact, that many grocers sell Dr. Price's Baking Powders at the same price they do the cheaper kinds, and as they have to pay more for it, make less money, hence they never sell it unless the purchaser demands it. They place it out of sight, and urge their customers to take the common kinds because they are more profitable. Let consumers become acquainted with the fact that it is only necessary to mix one part flour to two parts Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder to make a powder as perfect in its results as other kinds, and there are few who would pay the same price for the adulterated articles as for Dr. Price's, nor when flour costs less than six cents per pound. Dr. Price's powder is not sold in bulk. 16-1d

S. Einstein is selling his Cassimeres and Piece Goods cheaper than ever. 16-1d

J. P. Marsh has just turned out a lot of fine boots made to order, that fit so well that the only way the wearers can tell whether they have boots on or not is to look at their feet. A few more can be served the same way.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Parson Russ left for Paris this morning. Dr. L. T. Pease and wife left for the east over the Paris road this morning. Mrs. George G. M. J. Pease, Gen. J. H. Moore and several other dwellers of this city, returned from Springfield on the noon train.

Dick Piper, reporter, clerk, and Charles Martin, cashier, of the St. Nicholas Hotel, way office in this city, will leave for St. Louis and Southern Missouri by the 9 o'clock train to-morrow morning. They will be absent about a week.

At the St. Nicholas Hotel the following persons are registered: H. B. Currier, St. Louis; Shaw Pease, Natick; E. Jackson, Toledo; A. Tuttle, Lincoln; Mrs. Carson, St. Louis; Daniel Kinney, Loami; P. Farmer Jack at Mt. Zion.—On Thursday evening of this week Farmer Jack had an opportunity to speak at Mount Zion and enlighten the benighted inhabitants of that burg on cheap transportation and the corruption of the Roman Catholic party. We learn that he was there the school-house opened up its respectable doors and he made his speech in travel, and that he was there for an hour or more with "none to molest or make them afraid," as not another mortal went inside the house. At the conclusion of an hour more of patient waiting the twain gathered their mantles about them and returned to their respective homes.

Nigger Jim, the North Carolina boot-black, repeatedly vows in his stutering and stammering words that he's "a gwine to smash" some of the small boys who daily aggravate him and rattle his temper. Jim admits the possibility of his being fined, and says that he would pay a fine for the fun there is in "smashing" these mischievous youngsters.

Singing Schools are now being held at three of the Decatur churches. Many who attend, however, have no intention of learning anything about music—they go mostly for the purpose of enjoying a good social time.

The Question Answered.—How Linn and Scruggs employ so many salesmen and sell goods cheap? They keep the largest stock of dry goods in Decatur—they retail more goods than any other Dry Goods House in the United States, according to population, and their expenses are less in proportion to sales. Besides they are thus enabled to buy most of their goods of first hands and by the Case and Package, which gives them great advantage over small dealers. Jun 2 d&w

A Splendid Line of Western made Flannels, just received at S. Einstein's. 16-1d

The Improved New Style "DUBUQUE" for 1874, is the best and handsomest self-feeding, base-heating stove in the market, and is for sale only by 13-1d MONGROUSE & WELLS

For Several Years numerous experiments have been making for burning our soft coal successfully in a self-feeding magazine stove, that would require the fire to be built but once during the season, and one in which fire could be kept from ten to thirty-six hours, without replenishing. Some of these experiments have proven partially successful, but none a perfect success, excepting the invention of the "OMAHA." We notice this stove is for sale by Cross & Griswold.

If you want a splendid suit, call at 13-1d RACE'S.

Help for the Hopeless.—You are weak, dejected, miserable, and nothing does you any good, you say. Don't despair. There is balm in Gilead. Have you tried Vinegar Bitters? No? Then why don't you? Do not insist that such a thing as a vital elixir is impossible because you have tested the properties of this marvelous Vegetable Bitters. Whether your complaint be dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, constitutional debility, or any other trouble, Vinegar Bitters will revive and renovate your shattered system, as a genial rain refreshes the withered flowers. 25-d&w
